

SPORTING EXTRA.

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

WINS THE FOURTH RACE FROM BLITZ AT THE HILLTOP TRACK.

A POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES.

Tasso and Houston, Both Outsiders, Beat Their Fields.

JUDGE HOFFMAN TALKS BACK.

Replied from the Bench to Strictures by Judge Lippincott.

Turner Says It Is a Lie.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

SMALL PANIC IN THE HOUSE.

Congressmen Rush for the Doors When a Steam-Pipe Explodes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

THE "NOVEMBER VILLAIN" (Cont.)

LEE PHILLIPS STEPS OUT.

He Resigns as Chief Examiner of the Civil Service Board.

A Rumor that Mayor Grant Requested Him to Do So.

Lee Phillips, Chief Examiner, Executive Officer and Secretary of the City Civil Service Board, resigned his very lucrative position today.

It was stated in the Mayor's office that Henry W. Beardsley would be appointed in his stead, but the Mayor later in the afternoon stated that he would not make an appointment to fill the vacancy today.

Mr. Beardsley was formerly chief clerk to Street-Cleaning Commissioner Beattie, and has for the past year been Second Examiner of the Civil Service Board at a salary of $3,000. The salary of the secretary is $4,500 per year.

Secretary Phillips was first appointed by Mayor Grace, and held the position until the beginning of Mayor Grant's first term, when he was succeeded by Gunther K. Ackerman, whom he in turn succeeded when that gentleman resigned nearly two years ago.

There was a rumor about the City Hall to the effect that Mr. Phillips's resignation was requested as a result of his fixing an examination for police surgeons while Mayor Grant was absent in Europe, knowing that the Mayor disapproved the employment of more surgeons for the police department.

Mr. Phillips is known to have had some words with Commissioner of Public Works Gilroy over this matter.

The Commissioner is said to have demanded that the advertised examination be postponed, which action Phillips opposed, though he was finally prevailed on to do as Mr. Gilroy requested.

Mayor Grant declared that he had nothing to say when asked if Mr. Phillips's resignation was requested because of his action in relation to the examination for police surgeons.

WALL STREET, DEC. 11.—The market had a tremor this morning. The bulls realized their error yesterday and were depressing prices today in order to get their stocks back at a lower range.

All the leading stocks yielded 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., a result which was by no means adequate to the amount of ammunition expended in trying to bring about a break.

Missouri Pacific was an exception, declining as much as 1 per cent.

The Industrials and some of the specialties continued strong.

Wall Street, Dec. 11.—The market had a tremor this morning. The bulls realized their error yesterday and were depressing prices today in order to get their stocks back at a lower range.

All the leading stocks yielded 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., a result which was by no means adequate to the amount of ammunition expended in trying to bring about a break.

Missouri Pacific was an exception, declining as much as 1 per cent.

The Industrials and some of the specialties continued strong.

TURNER SAYS IT IS A LIE.

Mr. Croker Never Spoke to Him of the House Appointments.

Congress having adjourned until to-morrow all the New York City members came home, and with them came ex-Congressman Charles H. Turner, the new bookkeeper of the House.

He was coming to the city to the assertion by Republican organs that he had come to consult Richard Croker regarding the 152 places which he has to fill and which are worth from $2,000 a year to $25,000 a year.

Bookkeeper Turner at his home, 48 Eighth avenue, denied this, and said that he simply came to arrange for the removal of his family to Washington.

His wife is ill and his presence was on that account necessary.

"I was not called here by telephone either by Mr. Croker or anybody else. I have not seen Mr. Croker since I got home. I hope to see him before I return to Washington, but I am not sure."

Mr. Croker sent me a note congratulating me on my election, but there was not a word of politics or reference to appointments in it. I have made no pledges or promises of appointment to Congress or anybody else, either that they should be fairly appointed. Of course the New York members will be appointed to the House, but the Democratic Congressmen from other States I have no idea that Mr. Croker or Tammany will have anything to do with.

"As for the appointments, I shall make none until I have received my orders from the duties of my position and the position to be filled. There is no tenure of office to any of the positions in the House, and the members could elect a new Housekeeper to-morrow if they wished, just as the House has done in the past. I am not a master in the middle of his term and elected another Republican in his place."

ONCE "NAPOLEON OF THE DRAMA."

One of the Apartment-House Thieves Recognized as Allen Wood.

Charles and Harry Morris were held at Jersey Market Police Court this morning on a charge of having robbed tenants at various apartment houses in the city until to-morrow morning, when Detectives Hunt and Burleigh expect to have additional evidence against them.

The pair turn out to be Charles W. and Henry W. Morris, brothers of Joseph W. Morris, a lawyer of 205 Broadway, who said that Charles is the Allen H. Wood who had been arrested in the case of the late Louis Bressler, his father-in-law, on a charge of having stolen the contents of the West End Theatre in Harlem. He had many other theatrical schemes, and the exploitation of Tommy Russell, the original Little Lord Fauntleroy, as a star, and was dubbed by the profession "The Napoleon of the Drama."

ROHAN PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses After Many Denials that He Is Miss Cohen's Burglar.

Charles Rohan, the well-known electrician, after having been incarcerated in the Tombs prison for nearly a year, decided to plead guilty to an indictment charging him with burglary.

He was today arraigned before Recorder Smith in the Court of General Sessions, where the plea was entered. He was remanded until Tuesday for sentence.

On the night of April 15, 1888, Rohan broke into the house of Joseph Cohen, in this city, and being discovered by Cohen's daughter, fled.

He subsequently served a term in the Ohio State Prison for a crime committed in that State, and was transferred to the New York authorities at the expiration of a term.

BE'S CAPE MAY COTTAGE

Is It Included in the Blanket Mortgage Given by Hamilton?

Cape May, N. J., Dec. 11.—It cannot be definitely ascertained yet whether the Summer cottage of President Harrison at Cape May Point is included in the foreclosure of the blanket mortgage given by A. B. Hamilton to his creditors.

This is probably ascertained this afternoon. The trustees among those who purchased the house this afternoon was rudely shaken by the explosion of a steam-pipe.

A rush was made for the doors as soon as the report was heard.

Order was quickly restored, though a volume of steam continued to pour into the chamber for many minutes.

Abraham Backer Is Buried.

The funeral of Abraham Backer, the noted actor, who recently failed for $4,000,000, took place from his residence, 431 West Fifty-third street, at 9 o'clock this morning. The funeral was a large attendance in the hall.

WALL STREET, DEC. 11.—The market had a tremor this morning. The bulls realized their error yesterday and were depressing prices today in order to get their stocks back at a lower range.

All the leading stocks yielded 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., a result which was by no means adequate to the amount of ammunition expended in trying to bring about a break.

Missouri Pacific was an exception, declining as much as 1 per cent.

The Industrials and some of the specialties continued strong.

MRS. GRANT SAYS NO.

The Dead General's Ashes to Remain in the Riverside Tomb.

Their Removal to Washington Would Needlessly Grieve Her.

"I Want Him Here, but I Can't Fight a Nation," She Cries.

In the face of the frequently expressed opinion of the widow of Gen. Grant, in full knowledge that the work of erecting a splendid mausoleum for the remains of the late General is progressing rapidly, and in spite of the fact that the project will with disapproval from the people and the fact that the Congress, Senator Plumb of Kansas, has again offered his resolution in the United States Senate, looking to the removal of the remains of the General to Washington.

Gen. Charles H. T. Collins, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Grant Monument Association, has gone, just back, to Washington to try to head off the passage of the bill.

A representative of THE EVENING WORLD visited the home of Mrs. Julia Dent Grant today to ascertain her views upon the subject which concerns her more than any other person living.

Mrs. Grant was a tremendous pleader as she talked with the reporter, who said, in response to her statement, that Senator Plumb had introduced his resolution once more.

"Again? I had hoped that I should hear no more about it. It distresses me very much."

The widow of the great hero passed her hands across her eyes and after a moment continued:

"I buried my husband here because I wanted him near me. I wanted him where I could go to him. My children are near me. Jesse, my son, lives with me. My son, Ulysses, lives at Salem, Oregon. Westchester County, New York, is my home. I am growing old. It is not easy for me to change my residence at command."

"But I cannot fight a whole Congress. My husband was a public man and I have been educated to feel that he belonged to the people."

Perhaps the publicists entitled to him, even against me."

"I am a majority of the people want him removed—I suppose they will do it. I cannot help myself."

There was something indescribably pathetic in the way Mrs. Grant expressed her helplessness. Then she resumed almost passionately:

"Why do they do it? Washington lies at Mount Vernon, and they have built a great monument to him at the capital. Why can't they let the General rest where I laid him?"

"They are building a splendid monument to him at the capital, and they are building a great monument to him at the capital. Why can't they let the General rest where I laid him?"

Whether this sentiment is so strong as to counterbalance the wishes of the wife and the companion of the dead hero remains to be seen.

Aside from the sentiment of the thing, there is another argument seemingly very strong in opposition to Senator Plumb's proposal.

The Grant Monument Association has already $100,000 in hand toward the erection of a fine mausoleum, several thousands of which was subscribed by New Yorkers.

Already $47,000 has been expended in building the foundations of the mausoleum.

Should the remains of Gen. Grant be removed to Washington lawsuits would surely follow by the subscribers for a return of their money.

It is weeks ago the tomb of Grant was removed to the pedestal which was intended for its final resting place.

The site was not merely approved of, but was selected by the widow and her children, and over and over again, when she has been pressed into expressing her views, Mrs. Grant has said that here was where she would have her husband laid.

"It is extremely distressing to her and her family," says Gen. Collins, "and in questionable taste, this annual agitation, and these periodical efforts to change the location of the grave. The mausoleum will be completed by the opening of the year of the World's Fair, I believe."

"This annual agitation is one of the forces against which we have had to bring in getting subscriptions to the Monument Fund."

In an interview with THE EVENING WORLD's Washington correspondent, Senator Plumb said he had no intention of reflecting upon the people of New York city, but he believed Washington was the only proper place for Gen. Grant's tomb, and that that was the will of the American people.

The resolution was laid on the table, but Senator Plumb gave notice that he would call it up and press its adoption in the Senate at an early moment of convenience.

MISSING NOTE-BROKER NORCROSS MAY HAVE BEEN SAGE'S DYNAMITER.

Pieces of the Fiend's Clothing Identified at Somerville, Mass.

A Boston Tailor Says He Recognizes the Buttons.

Inspector Byrnes's Detectives Have a Good Clue Now.

THE EVENING WORLD'S REPORT.

Boston, Dec. 11.—It is believed the man who threw the bomb in Russell Sage's office has been identified here.

He is believed to have been Henry Norcross, a note broker, who has been missing from his home in Sumner street since a week ago last Wednesday.

One of Inspector Byrnes's men came here with the pieces of the man's clothing found at the scene of the explosion.

The pieces were shown to Norcross's people, who said they were from the missing man's clothes.

Tailor Brooks, of this city, also recognized the buttons, and said he made Norcross a suit of clothes out of cloth like the pieces.

Norcross was a man of about thirty years, moody and silent, having no intimate friends.

His place of business was at 12 Pearl street, this city.

The New York detective when seen by a Globe reporter this afternoon seemed to be confident that the clue struck at Somerville was a good one.

An opportunity will be given to some of Norcross's people to identify the head of the dynamiter, now at the Morgue in New York.

Inspector Byrnes was not at his office when THE EVENING WORLD reporter called there, and in his absence none of his assistants could be induced to discuss the Boston case of the new identification.

A RUMORED DEFALCATION.

Wall Street Excited by an Unconfirmed Report.

Rumors were prevalent on the Stock Exchange towards the close of business today that a prominent Broad street house was in difficulties, owing to a defalcation by one of its members to the amount of at least a million dollars.

Great secrecy was maintained, and those who appeared to have any information regarding it refused to say a word.

Stocks became somewhat unsettled on account of the rumor, and the bears got back some of their lost contracts.

It was said in one quarter that the rumor grew out of the loss by a Missouri Pacific clerk of a certificate of 1,400 shares of stock between the company's headquarters and a broker's office.

The rumor has caused a great sensation.

It was said later that an amount of securities ranging from $20,000 and $30,000, and perhaps a great deal more, had been taken by employees of two brokerage houses and that the employees had slipped.

This could not be verified.

HURLBERT WANTED IN LONDON

Accused of Perjury in the Gladys Evelyn Damage Case.

The news, given exclusively in this morning's World, of the arrival in this city of Detective Hurlbert from Scotland Yard, London, for the purpose of securing the arrest and extradition to England of William Henry Hurlbert, the well-known journalist, on the charge of perjury, has caused a sensation.

The detective arrived on the steamship Teutonic day before yesterday, and has since been kept in the city by his movements, cannot be traced.

Mr. Hurlbert and his wife have been living recently at the Hotel Lenox, at Fifth avenue and Thirtieth street. About two weeks ago, just about the time the hotel's warrant was issued, they left the hotel and have not since returned.

Some at the hotel seem to know where they have gone. Mr. Hurlbert left orders that his mail should be forwarded to him, but has sent no address to the clerk of the hotel since he went away. A large quantity of mail has accumulated for him and no one knows where to send it.

IN LORD LYTTON'S PLACE.

Lord Dufferin to Be the English Ambassador at Paris.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Lord Dufferin has been appointed British Ambassador to France in place of the late Lord Lytton.

REPORTED BEET SUGAR SYNDICATE.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 11.—T. L. Kimball, of the Union Pacific, and Henry Gibson, an Omaha business man, are the Western agents of the New York syndicate which has decided to erect a system of beet sugar factories throughout Nebraska and adjacent States, with headquarters in this city. They refuse to give any information on the subject until the plans are perfected.

Masked Robbers' Small Haul.

SANITARY SPRINGS, Cal., Dec. 11.—The office of the Wells Fargo & Co. Express was robbed last night by two masked men who covered the agent, F. C. Morebeck, with pistols and compelled him to surrender the keys of the safe. The robbers secured only a watch and $50.

WALL STREET, DEC. 11.—The market had a tremor this morning. The bulls realized their error yesterday and were depressing prices today in order to get their stocks back at a lower range.

All the leading stocks yielded 1/4 to 1/2 per cent., a result which was by no means adequate to the amount of ammunition expended in trying to bring about a break.

Missouri Pacific was an exception, declining as much as 1 per cent.

The Industrials and some of the specialties continued strong.

STATE SENATORIAL APPEALS.

They Call a Big Crowd to the Chamber of the Highest Court.

The Arguments in the Five Cases Concluded This Afternoon.

ALBANY, Dec. 11.—Never in recent years has such a large crowd of interested parties thronged the Court of Appeals chamber as this morning. The case of the State Senatorial districts, argued today were the five appeals on behalf of the State Canvassing Board, awarding certificates of election in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh Senatorial Districts.

Among those present of counsel for the Republicans were Joseph H. Choate, William A. Sullivan, Matthew Hale, J. H. Cady, George H. Jones, of New York, and Packard, while on behalf of the Democrats appeared Deputy Attorney-General Maynard, DeLoe McCurdy, of New York, and Louis Marshall, of Syracuse.

Others present included the State officers, several candidates from the disputed districts and prominent lawyers and politicians.

The four cases on the court argued today were the five appeals on behalf of the State Canvassing Board, awarding certificates of election in the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Twenty-fifth and Twenty-seventh Senatorial Districts.

The trials in these cases on behalf of the Democrats were prepared by Deputy Attorney-General Maynard and DeLoe McCurdy, separate Republican briefs on all four appeals were prepared by Matthew Hale and William A. Sullivan, J. H. Cady submitting a brief having to do with the controversy in Dutchess County.

The two appeals in the Sherwood case were first called for by the State Canvassing Board, and the question presented is whether the State Canvassing Board has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District, or whether it has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District, or whether it has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District.

After reading the act of the Legislature creating a Park Commission in Hordellville, the cases were called for by the State Canvassing Board.

These Commissioners so appointed by the Mayor are authorized and empowered to exercise a portion of the functions of the Government, and they possess every attribute of a public officer, and come within every accepted definition.

Several cases were quoted with several decisions of the Supreme Court, and the lawyer's reasoning and led him to say:

"The rule to be deduced from all the cases is that where the State Canvassing Board has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District, or whether it has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District, or whether it has the right to order a new election in the Fifteenth or Sixteenth Senatorial District."

The relator was then an officer under the city government of Hordellville at the time of his election, or within 100 days previous thereto, and consequently ineligible to the office of Senator.

The electors had notice and knowledge of the fact that the relator was ineligible to the office of Senator prior to and at the time of the election. Will the court require actual notice from the electors of the fact that the relator was ineligible to the office of Senator prior to and at the time of the election?

The relator was then an officer under the city government of Hordellville at the time of his election, or within 100 days previous thereto, and consequently ineligible to the office of Senator.

The electors had notice and knowledge of the fact that the relator was ineligible to the office of Senator prior to and at the time of the election. Will the court require actual notice from the electors of the fact that the relator was ineligible to the office of Senator prior to and at the time of the election?

Report that Monmouth Association Is to Have a New Track.

TO BE SITUATED AT OAK POINT

100 to 1 Against Her.

It was currently reported at Guttenberg yesterday that the Monmouth Park Association contemplated the building of a new race course within a few miles of New York City. Rumor says that a desirable site has been found and that it is in the vicinity of Oak Point, which is a few miles above Harlem bridge and about the same distance from Morris Park. It is said that an offer of $4,000 an acre has been made for the property. The land is level and well adapted for such purposes.

Although this rumor may have some foundation, it is hardly believed that any such step as the building of a new race track is contemplated by the Monmouth Park Association. It is not probable that they have given up all hope of ever racing on their present track, and then coming to Oak Point, which is a few miles above Harlem bridge and about the same distance from Morris Park. It is said that an offer of $4,000 an acre has been made for the property. The land is level and well adapted for such purposes.

This law refers to betting on race tracks. Another reason is the fact that the Monmouth Association is a lease of the Jerome Park property which has been made by the city, and in the event of no action by the Legislature this year, Monmouth will have to race over the Jerome Park's saddle-bag course.

A race course near Oak Point would be very easy of access and therefore desirable. The trip could be made by steamboat or by rail, and the facilities for handling crowds would be unlimited. The Monmouth Association is incorporated under the laws of this State. This was done last Spring in order that the programme could be run off at Jerome Park.

THE BOARD OF CONTROL HAS FIXED THE DATES FOR THE ASSOCIATIONS UNDER ITS JURISDICTION:

Brooklyn Jockey Club, May 18 to June 2; New York Jockey Club, May 30 to June 17; Coney Island Jockey Club, June 18 to July 2; Monmouth Park Association, July 4 to Aug. 25; Coney Island Jockey Club, Aug. 26 to Sept. 10; Brooklyn Jockey Club, Sept. 11 to Sept. 30; New York Jockey Club, Oct. 1 to Oct. 15. The dates so fixed are inclusive.

Jockey Harry Ray got into trouble yesterday for his peculiar riding of The Sheriff in the last race. The horse dropped out of the race, and the jockey was fined $100. He was told to wait to win, after closing up a lot of ground. Naturally Judge Burke asked for an explanation. The jockey and the trainer, M. F. Wolfe were called into the committee room after the races were over and questioned. Wolfe said that Ray had received instructions to ride away with the horse, but that he had overdone the matter. He added that The Sheriff was a hard horse to ride. The owner of the horse, Orlando Jones, was called in, and the committee decided that no decision was arrived at by the committee. Jones will be called before the committee tomorrow.

Ray has ridden some good races at Guttenberg and has a good record. He was in the race in question yesterday Ray seemed to be trying his best. Going down the backstretch he could not seem to be able to get the horse going in his stride. It was not until the far turn was reached that the horse seemed to warm out of its stiffness, and then he came out with a great burst of speed. It seems improbable that the horse was so stiff, and he closed up ground in the stretch precisely as he did yesterday.

A few days ago the mare Gilda was scratched from a race at the last moment because it was said that she had been run into by an unwelcome intruder. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of good horses in an easy fashion. Apparently the collision was not serious. All bets were declared off and the Executive Committee started an investigation, having been informed that the mare had not been injured, but was scratched in order that a certain party could get the city bet off of another horse in the race. The investigation is still on, and it is still on. No decision has yet been arrived at. Yesterday this same mare Gilda, at odds of 100 to 1, jumped out and beat a lot of